

Get Your Voice Heard!

- Do you care about your neighborhood and community?
- Are you concerned about the human tragedy and great cost of alcohol-related violence and crime in Madison?

Do you wish you knew how to really make a difference? Citizen power has made positive change in many areas.*

Come to FREE Advocacy Training

Workshops, with Maureen Busalacchi from Smoke Free Wisconsin.

Learn how to write letters, give testimony and effectively communicate with local policy makers as well as media.

Wednesday, July 28, 6 PM at the West District Police Station (1710 McKenna Blvd)

Tuesday, August 2, 6 PM at the East District Police Station (809 S. Thompson Drive)

Thursday, August 12, noon, in Rm 421 of the City County Building downtown Issues discussed will include: the downtown Density Ordinance, history of licensing decisions, lobbying issues. However, the skills you will learn will be invaluable for any cause you wish to advocate.

The workshops are sponsored by the Dane County Coalition to Reduce Alcohol Abuse.
